Behind the Walls of the New BAM/PFA

Lecture by Lawrence Rinder

Director, UC Berkeley Art Museum and Pacific Film Archive

Wednesday, October 16, 2013, 7:30 P.M.

Auditorium, Wurster Hall, UC Berkeley

The lecture is free and open to the public - Reception following the lecture

Director Lawrence Rinder presents an overview of the new downtown Berkeley BAM/PFA building currently under construction at Oxford and Center Streets. Designed by the New York-based firm Diller, Scofidio + Renfro, the new BAM/PFA will help to catalyze the transformation of downtown Berkeley and foster student learning by providing improved gallery spaces, increased areas for education and collection access, and two state-of-the-art film theaters.
